Rev. Joseph C. Gatto

Rev. Msgr. Richard W. Siepka

Dear Friends,

This last academic year has passed quickly and has been one of excitement and transition as we have both returned to ministry at Christ the King Seminary after several years of parish life. This coming year will provide the opportunity to renew a tradition that began several years ago at the Seminary, but we both had continued individually in our parish communities. It is with great joy and anticipation that we announce the Christ the King Seminary Pilgrimage to Lourdes and Italy in this extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. One of the blessings that we had been given in our journey to the priesthood was the chance to experience many of the splendors of Europe. This opportunity has created a love for travel, especially to the treasured sites of our Catholic Faith. We invite you to join us for this excursion beginning with the beauties of France, especially its holiest shrines, and continuing to the wonders of Italy, including the center of the Catholic Church, the incredible city of Rome.

We will begin our pilgrimage in Lourdes, the location of the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to St. Bernadette in 1858. Our stay there will include the opportunity to participate in the various daily processions and devotions. Then we will comfortably travel on our own motor coach to beautiful locations in France such as Carcassone, Avignon (home of the 14th century Palace of the Popes), and Nice on the French Riviera. Our days in France are only the prelude as we then move on to Italy with a stop in Genoa, and stays in Florence and Assisi before we reach the pinnacle of our trip, the Eternal City of Rome. Our time in the heart of the Catholic Church will include a public audience with His Holiness, Pope Francis, before we return home, refreshed in mind, body and spirit.

We are happy to be working once again with our friends at NAWAS International. They have been successful in putting together an interesting and diverse itinerary, utilizing first class accommodations for a reasonable cost. We will be travelling at a time in mid-June when the crowds are still not at high season peak and the weather should be most comfortable before the high heat and humidity of Summer sets in. This will be a pilgrimage to remember. Please consider joining us for this 12 day journey to these exciting destinations.

Peace,

Fr. Joe & Fr. Rich
