

The Title IX Coordinator’s Role

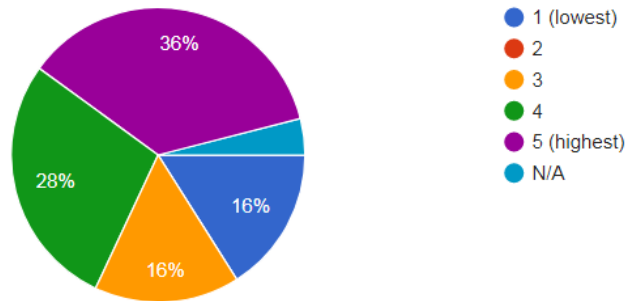

Seminary policies and procedures addressing sexual assault.

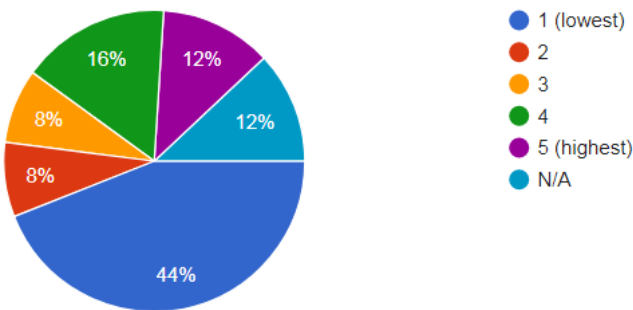

How and where to report sexual violence as a victim/survivor or witness.

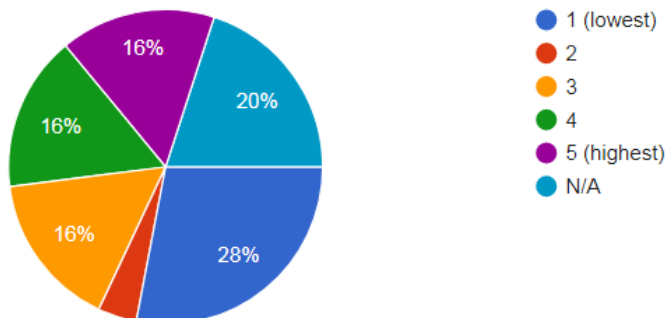

The availability of resources on and off campus, such as counseling, health, academic assistance.

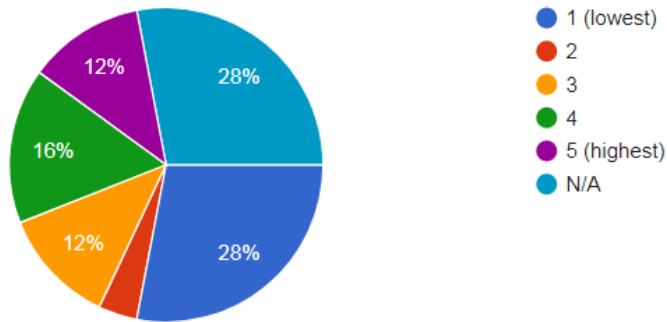

The prevalence of victimization and perpetration of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking on and off campus during the past two years (fall 2017 – spring 2018 semesters).

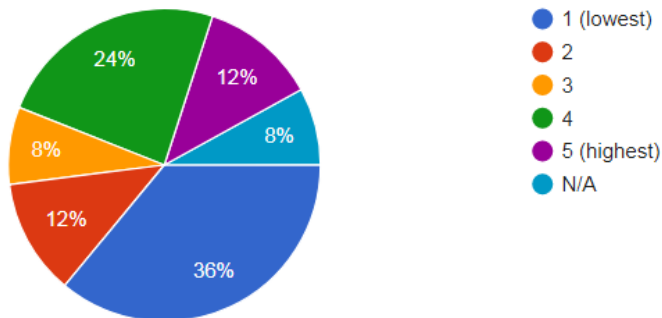

Bystander attitudes and behavior (if any).

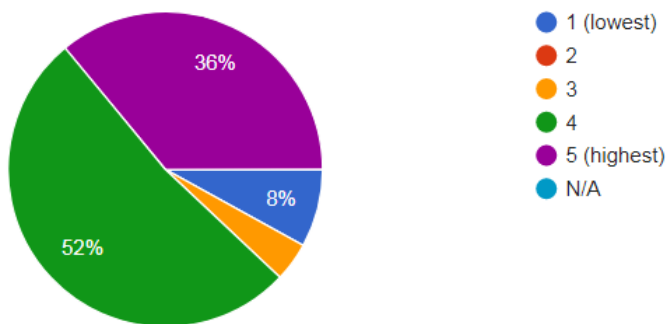

Whether victims/survivors reported to the Seminary and/or police, and reasons why they did or did not report.

The general awareness of the difference, if any, between the Seminary's policies and the New York State Penal Law.

Your general awareness of the definition of affirmative consent.

I know most of this through Title IX training as a college employee at a different institution, but I haven't really seen much at the seminary on the topic. I do not know who the Title IX coordinator is for instance.

The seminary has housing only for priests in formation and is an atypical campus setting. There is no co-ed housing. I am a part-time student who only attends evening classes. These questions are not relevant to my current situation.

These policies have been reviewed with me. Additionally it was brought up a couple times during the semester the importance to stay current in the Church's Virtus program.

The seminary is an extremely safe environment and during my time as a student (~8 years), violence of any sort has never been a concern.
